Future of MABUG

- SunGard is being stretched thin by all the user conferences its asked to support and requested to combine them into “Super Regionals” managed by SunGard
- Reps from BUGs were called to Malvern to discuss
 - Fall 2006 – MABUG Conference unaffected; SunGard Pilot Conference held in New England
 - Fall 2007 – If pilot is successful and constituents agree, SunGard will organize a “Super Regional” that serves clients from Maine to NC, most likely held in the Philadelphia area
 - Afterwards, MABUG and “Super Regional” held in alternate years
- Your thoughts?
